

The Social Studies Department seeks to prepare students to be responsible and effective citizens in our ever-changing interdependent world. To prepare students to play a dynamic role in their local and global communities, our department strives to develop students who possess disciplinary knowledge and skills, and a respect for multiple perspectives. The overall goal is to help develop a just and humane society, reflective of our Cretin-Derham Hall values.

PLEASE NOTE: A 3.5 cumulative GPA is strongly recommended for registration for an Advanced Placement or Honors social studies course.

Values Symposium – Social Studies (year long) and one Area Studies elective

VALUES SYMPOSIUM – Social Studies Grade 9 students are pre-registered for this course.

This ninth grade interdisciplinary course is intended to provide all students with a common academic and affective experience as they begin their secondary school education. Based expressly on the CDH values of academics, service, leadership, Catholicity, community, equity, and diversity, this year long course is team taught through the religion, English and social studies departments, and is supported by technology integration. It is our goal that students will learn more effectively by connecting traditionally separate subjects, providing a more natural educational process in preparation for life-long learning. Important aspects of this course include the building of relationships among the students and between students and their teachers, developing critical thinking and communication skills and encouraging informed citizenship and active participation in the CDH community.

Grade 9

Area Studies Electives: Grade 9,

One area studies elective must be taken in addition to the required Grade 9 Values Symposium course.

ADVANCED PLACEMENT UNITED STATES HISTORY

Year long

A social studies GPA of 3.5 or higher is strongly recommended for Advanced Placement U. S. History, as well as a strong interest in learning history.

Advanced Placement United States History is a year long chronological study of US History. This course will teach students factual knowledge. Students will also demonstrate the skills of analysis, synthesis and evaluation. The demands of this course are equivalent to those of a full-year introductory college course. Students will read numerous primary source documents as well as a college level textbook. In addition, students will complete extensive writing assignments and essay exams. Due to the scope and depth of this course, students will be required to complete summer reading assignments and homework.

The AP U.S. History course focuses on developing students’ understanding of American history from approximately 1491 to the present. This course has students investigate the content of U.S. history for significant events, individuals, developments, and processes in nine historical periods, and develop and use the same thinking skills and methods (analyzing primary and secondary sources, making historical comparisons, chronological reasoning, and argumentation) employed by historians when they study the past. This course also provides seven themes (American and national identity; migration and settlement; politics and power; work, exchange, and technology; America in the world; geography and the environment; and culture and society) that students explore throughout the course in in order to make connections among historical developments in different times and places.

AP U.S. History is designed to be the equivalent of a two-semester introductory college or university U.S. history course. There are no prerequisites for AP U.S. History. Students should be able to read a college-level textbook and write grammatically correct, complete sentences.

ADVANCED PLACEMENT U.S. GOVERNMENT - Honors

Tri II and Tri III

A social studies GPA of 3.5 or higher is strongly recommended for Advanced Placement U. S. Government, as well as a strong interest in learning about government

Advanced Placement U.S. Government is a two-trimester course open to 11th and 12th grade students. 11th graders would take this course to fulfill their U.S. Government requirement. 12th graders may take this course to fulfill two of their three trimester social studies requirements.

Advanced Placement U.S. Government will cover the development of our political system and how it functions today. The three branches of government will be stressed. The process of creating public policy and the implementation of that policy will be examined. Students who take this course will be expected to do extensive readings and have good writing skills. Advanced Placement U.S. Government will prepare students to take the Advanced Placement exam in the spring. Many colleges and universities will give credit and /or advanced placement to students who do well on the exam.

Grades 11, 12

SENIOR INTERDISCIPLINARY SYMPOSIUM (SPECTRUM) - Honors Year long

Senior Interdisciplinary Symposium is an interdisciplinary course that fulfills the 12th grade requirement for credit in English, and religion. The course also fulfills 2 credits for social studies. Students are required to take Economics or Economics-honors and U. S. Government or AP U. S. Government to fulfill the social studies requirement. This course is taught by three teachers (one from each discipline) and meets for two consecutive class periods.

The three disciplines in the course are integrated in two primary ways. First the course focuses upon themes that are common to the three subject areas. The values of Catholic Social Teaching underlie the selection of literature and guide the approach to each topic. Second, the disciplines are integrated through an emphasis on developing skills: reading, writing, critical thinking and discussion.

Spectrum has a focus on service, learning and leadership. When a student registers for Spectrum, he/she agrees to do a year of service at one of the program's designated sites.

A 3.5 cumulative GPA in English, religion and social studies is strongly recommended for registration for Senior Interdisciplinary Symposium (Spectrum).

Students will be encouraged to attend and participate in an overnight retreat. Approximate cost: $80.00.

Limited financial assistance is available to students who cannot otherwise afford to attend the retreat.

St. Mary's University will give credit for Readings in Literature OR Senior Interdisciplinary Symposium (Spectrum), not both. St. Mary's University has approved Spectrum as part of its Program for Advanced College Credit (PACC). Twelfth graders who take Spectrum and maintain a "C" average in this class may earn three college credits from St. Mary's which are transferable to approximately sixty other colleges and universities.
