Academic Excellence for All Learners

Cretin-Derham Hall

*Enter to learn,
go forth to serve.*

Why Cretin-Derham Hall?

Our long tradition of innovative learning supports each student to be the very best version of what God created him or her to be.

Academic Excellence: CDH provides a high-quality education, second to none, that is rigorous and challenging at every level—while being realistically achievable and affordable. Students at CDH build a foundation of skills that enables them to be lifelong learners and change agents in a challenging world.

Faith and Spiritual Growth: A Catholic school sponsored by the Christian Brothers and the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet, CDH believes that the true integration of faith and values into all aspects of a high school education is the foundation for our students' excellence. All faiths are welcome.

Servant Leadership: With our Catholic faith as our foundation, service and justice are integrated into our experience to create global citizens who care enough to impact our community and shape worldviews. CDH students understand both the blessing and the responsibility that comes with belonging to something greater than themselves.

Dynamic Community: CDH approaches education as a way of life; openly sharing resources and ideas, fostering opportunities for collaboration, and building academic skills and personal connections that truly last a lifetime. Students (and families) remain connected to CDH long after the four years of high school end.

A Place to Belong: CDH is big enough to provide broad academic and co-curricular opportunities so that every student can find his or her own voice, place, and passion. With such a rich environment of student involvement, it is easy, and very common, to be involved in multiple activities.

Inclusive Environment: CDH provides a non-elite, welcoming environment that celebrates diversity of thought, interests, income, races, and learning abilities.

What makes CDH unique?

We are proud to be a community of learners, leaders and friends. We support each individual to achieve, while we work together to build life-long connections that will last far beyond the four years here.

CASA (Connecting Adults and Students to Achieve)

CASA creates a unique framework of family and house communities focused on building and maintaining connections at CDH. The entire school is involved, including all students and faculty, plus full-time staff, including the administration, custodians, and advancement office. The common goal is to support each other socially, academically, spiritually and more.

“CASA definitely connects me to students in all grades and I felt like a part of the CDH community so fast.” —CDH 9th Grader

“I love that Cretin-Derham Hall has CASA. I didn’t know too many people coming into CDH—and CASA has helped me meet so many new friends. It’s made a larger environment feel small and I can’t wait to see my CASA family each week.” —CDH 9th Grader

“I love that I get to know 20 other students who I typically don’t teach. We become a family, with all the quirks, fun and support, that a family provides – we become close in a pretty unique way.” —CDH Teacher
